Driving the AIMS@JCU Commuter Vehicle – June 2013

Policy: All new drivers of the AIMS@JCU commuter vehicle must demonstrate a driving competency equivalent to an open-licensed Queensland driver plus 3 years’ experience, and be required to undertake a driving induction prior to being authorised to drive the AIMS@JCU commuter vehicle.

Procedure summary:
- The induction consists of:
  - reading AIMS@JCU information, rules and procedures regarding the use of the AIMS@JCU commuter vehicle (linking to JCU fleet policy and procedures as appropriate);
  - watching a 10 minute driver safety video; and
  - formally certifying that this information has been provided and understood, and will be followed.
- The induction can be carried out by the driver in his/her own time and convenience.
- Demonstration of competency by one of the following
  - Presentation of an open Queensland drivers license dated 3 years or more before present;
  - Presentation of any other license which legally entitles the driver to drive on Queensland roads, plus pass a competency test with the Graduate School of Motoring;
  - AIMS@JCU will cover the cost of the competency test.
- A transition period of 6 months will be allowed for the existing 10 non-Queensland-licensed drivers to meet these requirements.
